

INVITATION: Extractive Industries and International Law

Date

5:30pm, Tuesday 8th October 2024

Venue

The Pollock Room, Essex Court Chambers,
24 Lincoln's Inn Fields, London, WC2A 3EG

You are invited to an evening seminar co-hosted by the International Law Association (ILA) British Branch and members of Essex Court Chambers. This event will address how different areas of international law and international cases intersect with extractive industries and their activities, including deep sea mining, investment treaty arbitration, climate obligations and human rights regimes.

Speakers will include Merryl Lawry-White (ILA British Branch), Amy Sander and Naomi Hart (Essex Court Chambers), Stéphanie Caligara (Global Legal Action Network) and Lise Johnson (Curtis, Mallet-Provost, Colt & Mosle LLP).

In person attendance is limited. To register please contact events@essexcourt.com and indicate your preference of in-person or remote attendance.

Essex Court Chambers
24 Lincoln's Inn Fields, London WC2A 3EG, UK
T +44 (0)20 7813 8000 F +44 (0)20 7813 8080
E clerkroom@essexcourt.com DX 320 Chancery Lane

